

GR8 Food Trucks Magazine

The first of its kind, a free publication dedicated to local Food Trucks created by local Food Trucks. Food Trucks are the epitome of small business ownership and the GR8 Food Truck Magazine was created to fill a void in the marketplace. Aimed at helping to promote local food trucks, food truck events, and grow the local food truck culture & community.

How will this be accomplish?

- GR8 Food Truck Magazine will feature all of the local food trucks that we work with through our events. Each food truck will have its contact information available, in addition to a basic menu description, & photos. All featured free of charge to the trucks. Over 50+ food trucks in our first edition.
- Showcase all of the local Food Truck events that GR8 Food Trucks is a part of. First edition will showcase 7 major food truck events.
- Feature articles & interviews from local food truck owners.
- Showcase some of the many varieties of food truck food.
- Create a bonded experience between food trucks and the public.
- Provides a handheld reference guide for companies, offices and the average person looking to book a food truck for an event.
- Food Trucks being a small business are an important part of our local community. GR8 Food Trucks Magazine will also feature other community business through advertisement space. Further enhancing the local community bond.
